General

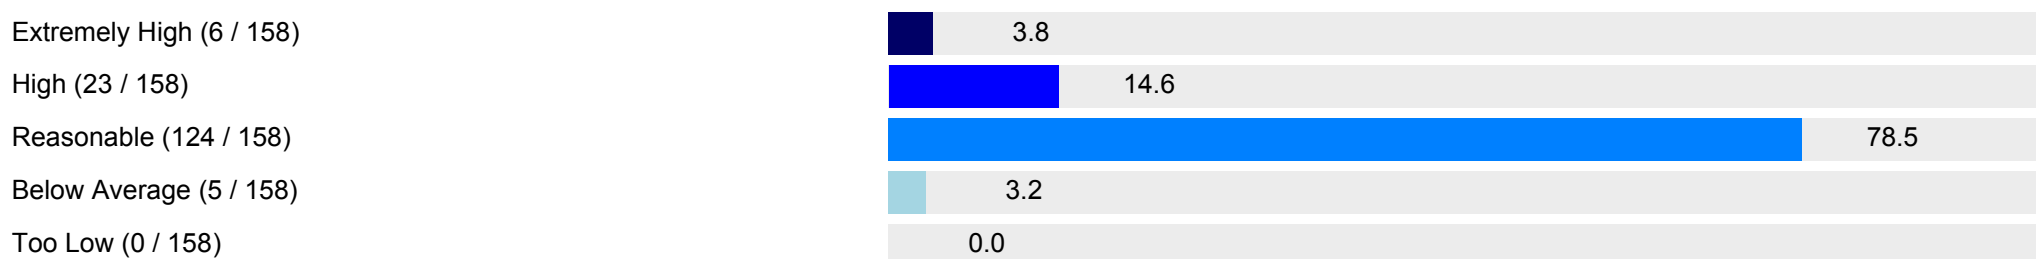

The Ingwelala bungalow building style was based on the original Rondavel. It has developed with modifications and enhancements on that theme. Ingwelala should now move to a more modern design:

The current level of time, effort and resources devoted by Ingwelala to conservation in the broader sense is appropriate:

Levies have been kept close to inflation over the last few years For the investment in Ingwelala and the services offered, Ingwelala levies are:

Landowner Association

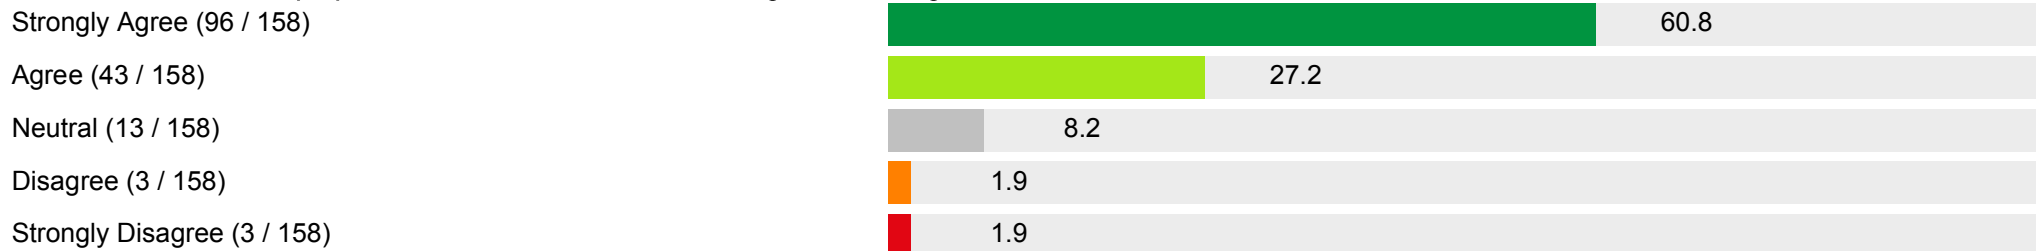

I am aware of who the members of Nkorho and Umbabat Private Nature Reserve are

Our membership of the Umbabat Private Nature Reserve carries with it increasing costs and opposing views on conservation, for example hunting and use of funds. I support Ingwelala's ongoing involvement with the other members forming a likeminded conservati

The Umbabat and Nkorho constitutions prohibit further commercialisation - including new share blocks or other endeavours that could substantially increase utilisation of the properties. This is a cornerstone that Ingwelala through the Umbabat and Nkorho s

Member Behaviour

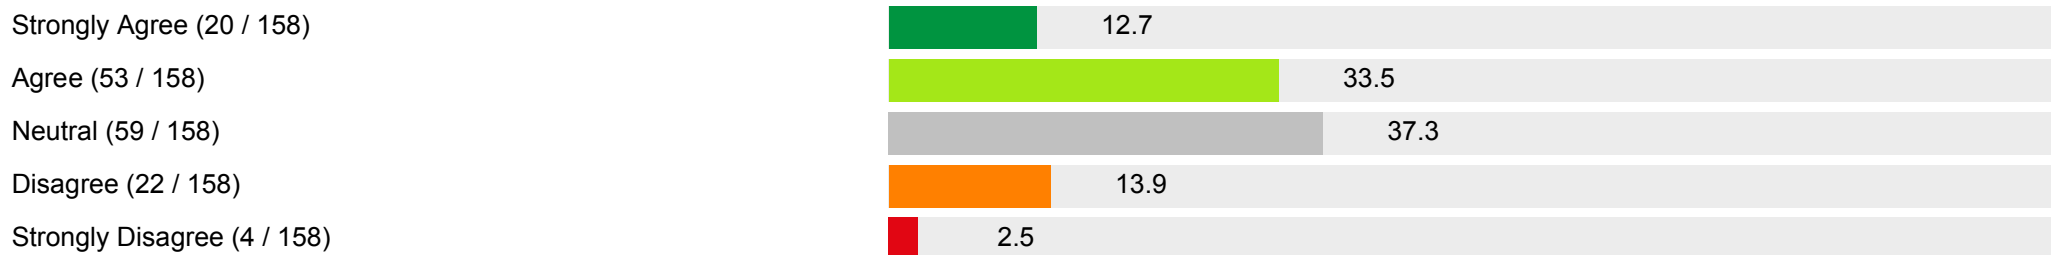

Members behaviour at communal facilities such as waterholes, hides and viewing sites is a concern

Members behaviour at the swimming pool and members area is a concern

The current level of fines for unacceptable member behaviour should be significantly increased to correct bad behaviour

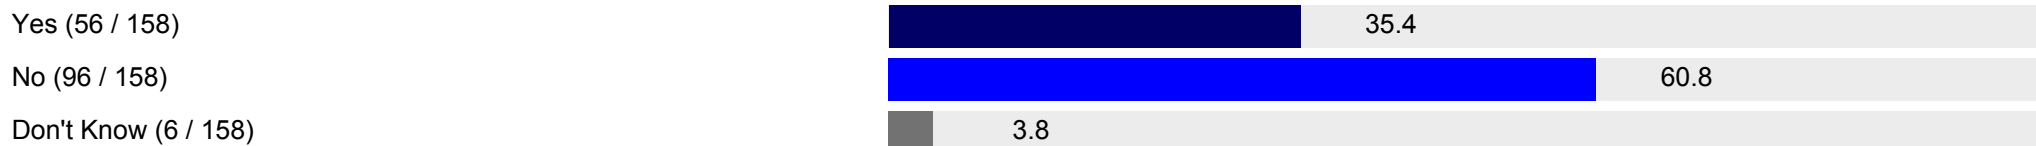

Frequency Analysis

Developments A

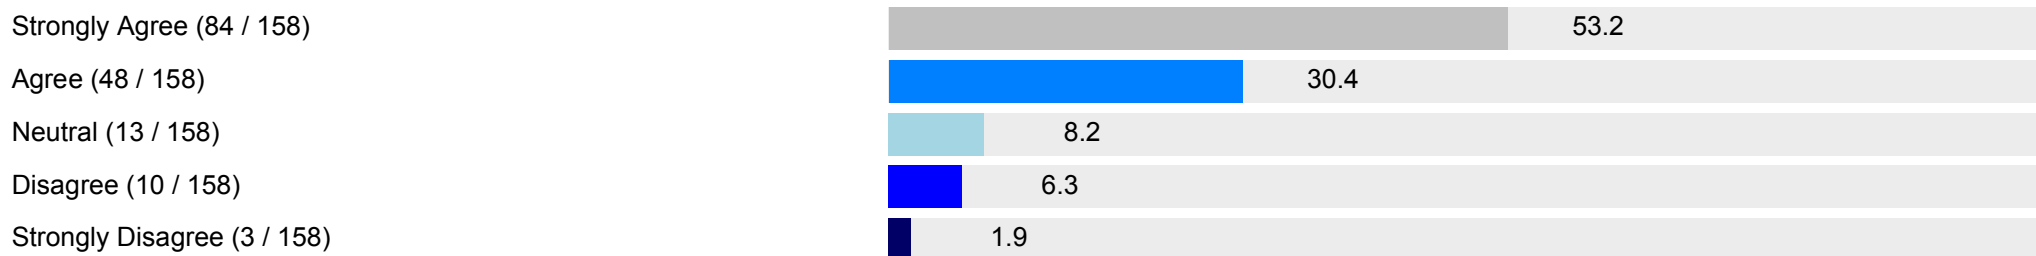

Occasionally approaches are made to individual farms or the Umbabat to enable extended cellphone coverage. I support extended cellphone coverage

Ingwelala should further develop recreational facilities - for example a gymnasium or play area

Many units are installing more than just basic solar power: The increasing noise and light pollution needs to be controlled

Would you be interested in attending social gatherings or communal braais at the Ingwelala members area?
